

GEORGETOWN.

Continued from Page Two.

Miss Nannie Pelree left last Tuesday for Roanoke, Va., to be the guest for the summer of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Kearney.

Miss Frances Ranson has returned to her home in Baltimore after spending a week in Georgetown as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. Owen Thompson.

Mrs. J. R. Wellington, formerly of Georgetown, and her little daughter Rebecca, will leave shortly for Sandy Springs, Md., to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Deer, and Miss Lillian Deer, of Superior, Wis., who have been visiting here recently, have left for their summer home, Deerwood, Minn.

Miss Edna Obenchain left last week for Wyoming to spend several weeks. Before returning to Georgetown, Miss Obenchain will also visit relatives in Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. King and their daughter, Miss Marion Edmondson King, left last Thursday for their cottage at Wianco, Cape Cod, Mass., for the summer.

Lieut. Commander Walter Harshman, U. S. N., and Mrs. Harshman will sail from New York on June 21 for Europe for three months in travel on the continent.

Mrs. J. McKenney Berry returned last week to her home in Thirtieth street after spending ten days in Winchester, Va., with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Baker.

Miss Frances Miller, formerly of Georgetown, who has been spending some time in Annapolis, as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Brerton, has returned to Washington.

Mrs. James H. W. Blake and her daughter, Miss Frances Blake, will leave the middle of the week for Mountain Lake Park, Md., to occupy a cottage for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mathews will close their home in Thirtieth street shortly and with their family will leave for their summer home in Oxford, Md., for a stay of several months.

Miss Ethel Jones, who has been the guest of Mr. R. L. Middleton and Miss Edna Middleton and of Mrs. Jones, of Kalorama avenue, left Thursday for her home in Macon, Ga.

Mrs. Grace De Lashmuth has given up her home in P street and with her family will spend the summer at the home of her mother, Mrs. Moffitt, in Twenty-eighth street.

Mr. R. L. Middleton, Miss Edna Middleton, and Miss Claire Bousleuil, of Macon, Ga., who have been spending a short time in Atlantic City, have returned to Georgetown.

Mrs. Eliza Delaney, who has been spending the winter in Georgetown, left recently for Norfolk to spend some time with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor.

Miss Mary Crovatt, who spent some time in Georgetown last month, will spend the summer in Brunswick, Ga., after a short visit to Philadelphia.

Miss Jane Hanna, who has been spending the winter in Georgetown with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Hanna, has arrived at Junction Rapids to remain six months.

Mrs. David Griffiths, formerly of Georgetown, left last week for Mount Vernon, N. C., to be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Thomas B. Griffiths, who will go to Orkney Springs, Va., to spend the summer.

Miss Elizabeth Bryan Ewing, who has been spending the past year in Red Springs, N. C., spent a few weeks here as the guest of relatives before sailing for Holland to spend the summer.

Mrs. George Walls sailed last week from New York for Havre, France. Mrs. Walls expects to remain in Europe a year, and will spend the summer in Germany, later she will travel through Spain, Italy, and Southern France.

Miss Bowie Wilson, formerly of Washington, paid a short visit to relatives in Georgetown last week, and has returned to her home in Baltimore. Miss Wilson was recently the guest of her uncle, Mr. Goldsborough Serpell, at his home in Norfolk, Va.

Rear Admiral John Van B. Bleeker, U. S. N., retired, and Mrs. Bleeker have opened their cottage at Jamestown, R. I., to spend the summer. Later they will be joined by Admiral Bleeker's mother and sister, Mrs. Bleeker and Miss May Bleeker, of New York.

Mrs. Cheevers Moran Barry, of Norfolk, is the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Lieut. Horace Spurgeon, U. S. A., and Mrs. Spurgeon, who have been spending several weeks in Georgetown with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Nelson Falls, at Hammond Court.

Mrs. Buckley and Miss Anne Buckley closed their home in R street and left last Thursday for Chicago, for a short visit before going to Omaha, Neb., to spend several weeks with Mrs. Buckley's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Fitzgaurdy.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dunlop, who have been spending a short week with their son, Mr. James F. Dunlop, of Woodburn, have returned to their home in N street. Mr. and Mrs. William Dunlop, Jr., and their little child are spending the summer at Woodburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Leary and their little daughter, Ruth Clarke Leary, who have been spending a few days in Baltimore as the guests of relatives, have returned to Georgetown and will be the guests of Mrs. Leary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Leary, until July 1, when they will return to their home in Asheville, N. C.

The ladies of the Tabernacle Society of Holy Trinity Church will give a strawberry festival on Thursday and Friday evenings, June 24 and 25, at the Trinity School Hall, Thirtieth street and N street. An excellent orchestra has been obtained to play for the evening and among the other attractions will be dancing and palmistry. The fancy table will be in charge of the young ladies of the Trinity Social Club, and among the ladies in charge of the refreshments will be Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Hoffinger, Mrs. Ridgway, Mrs. Edmondson, Mrs. Freeman, and Mrs. William Dunlop, who have been spending a short week with their son, Mr. James F. Dunlop, of Woodburn, have returned to their home in N street. Mr. and Mrs. William Dunlop, Jr., and their little child are spending the summer at Woodburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Leary and their little daughter, Ruth Clarke Leary, who have been spending a few days in Baltimore as the guests of relatives, have returned to Georgetown and will be the guests of Mrs. Leary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Leary, until July 1, when they will return to their home in Asheville, N. C.

The ladies of the Tabernacle Society of Holy Trinity Church will give a strawberry festival on Thursday and Friday evenings, June 24 and 25, at the Trinity School Hall, Thirtieth street and N street. An excellent orchestra has been obtained to play for the evening and among the other attractions will be dancing and palmistry. The fancy table will be in charge of the young ladies of the Trinity Social Club, and among the ladies in charge of the refreshments will be Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Hoffinger, Mrs. Ridgway, Mrs. Edmondson, Mrs. Freeman, and Mrs. William Dunlop, who have been spending a short week with their son, Mr. James F. Dunlop, of Woodburn, have returned to their home in N street. Mr. and Mrs. William Dunlop, Jr., and their little child are spending the summer at Woodburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Leary and their little daughter, Ruth Clarke Leary, who have been spending a few days in Baltimore as the guests of relatives, have returned to Georgetown and will be the guests of Mrs. Leary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Leary, until July 1, when they will return to their home in Asheville, N. C.

The ladies of the Tabernacle Society of Holy Trinity Church will give a strawberry festival on Thursday and Friday evenings, June 24 and 25, at the Trinity School Hall, Thirtieth street and N street. An excellent orchestra has been obtained to play for the evening and among the other attractions will be dancing and palmistry. The fancy table will be in charge of the young ladies of the Trinity Social Club, and among the ladies in charge of the refreshments will be Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Hoffinger, Mrs. Ridgway, Mrs. Edmondson, Mrs. Freeman, and Mrs. William Dunlop, who have been spending a short week with their son, Mr. James F. Dunlop, of Woodburn, have returned to their home in N street. Mr. and Mrs. William Dunlop, Jr., and their little child are spending the summer at Woodburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Leary and their little daughter, Ruth Clarke Leary, who have been spending a few days in Baltimore as the guests of relatives, have returned to Georgetown and will be the guests of Mrs. Leary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Leary, until July 1, when they will return to their home in Asheville, N. C.

The ladies of the Tabernacle Society of Holy Trinity Church will give a strawberry festival on Thursday and Friday evenings, June 24 and 25, at the Trinity School Hall, Thirtieth street and N street. An excellent orchestra has been obtained to play for the evening and among the other attractions will be dancing and palmistry. The fancy table will be in charge of the young ladies of the Trinity Social Club, and among the ladies in charge of the refreshments will be Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Hoffinger, Mrs. Ridgway, Mrs. Edmondson, Mrs. Freeman, and Mrs. William Dunlop, who have been spending a short week with their son, Mr. James F. Dunlop, of Woodburn, have returned to their home in N street. Mr. and Mrs. William Dunlop, Jr., and their little child are spending the summer at Woodburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Leary and their little daughter, Ruth Clarke Leary, who have been spending a few days in Baltimore as the guests of relatives, have returned to Georgetown and will be the guests of Mrs. Leary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Leary, until July 1, when they will return to their home in Asheville, N. C.

The ladies of the Tabernacle Society of Holy Trinity Church will give a strawberry festival on Thursday and Friday evenings, June 24 and 25, at the Trinity School Hall, Thirtieth street and N street. An excellent orchestra has been obtained to play for the evening and among the other attractions will be dancing and palmistry. The fancy table will be in charge of the young ladies of the Trinity Social Club, and among the ladies in charge of the refreshments will be Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Hoffinger, Mrs. Ridgway, Mrs. Edmondson, Mrs. Freeman, and Mrs. William Dunlop, who have been spending a short week with their son, Mr. James F. Dunlop, of Woodburn, have returned to their home in N street. Mr. and Mrs. William Dunlop, Jr., and their little child are spending the summer at Woodburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Leary and their little daughter, Ruth Clarke Leary, who have been spending a few days in Baltimore as the guests of relatives, have returned to Georgetown and will be the guests of Mrs. Leary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Leary, until July 1, when they will return to their home in Asheville, N. C.

MARRIED IN WILMINGTON.

GEORGE B. GALLAGHER

MRS. GEORGE B. GALLAGHER

Mrs. Gallagher is the daughter of Mr. E. C. R. Humphries, and the first intimation her parents had of her marriage came in a telegram from Wilmington last Wednesday immediately after the ceremony was performed.

Mrs. Harvey, Mrs. Davis, Miss Ready, and Miss Lee.

The Girls' Club and Sewing Class of the Georgetown Branch of the Christ Anna Society gave a delightful entertainment last Tuesday evening in Trinity School Hall for the benefit of the fresh air fund.

The feature of the evening was a cantata, entitled, "A Meeting of Nations," which was unusually attractive and well rendered.

Besides the cantata the programme also included recitations, fancy dancing, and several vocal and instrumental solos.

Among those who took prominent parts in the cantata were Miss Louise Morris as Columbia, Miss May Holden and Miss Katherine Monroe as England, Miss May Smith and Miss Dorothy Barrington as Scotland, Miss Anna Cain and Miss Mary Correll as Ireland, Miss Georgia Riccardi and Miss Mary Callahan as France, Miss Mary Mooney and Miss Theresa Newshier as Germany, Miss Catherine Mattane and Miss Evelyn Grude Conlon as Italy, Miss Irene Mattane and Miss Margaret Cronin as Spain, Miss Abbie Abner and Miss Pauline Callahan as Holland, Miss Catherine Gross and Miss Eulalia Thorne as Switzerland, Miss Catherine Cronin and Miss Evelyn Thompson as Sweden, Miss Rose Royce and Miss Margaret Spellman as Norway, Miss Marie Hayes and Miss Eva Thorne as Russia, Miss Margaret Callahan as China, and Miss Catherine Frank as Japan.

The affair, which was under the management of Mrs. Clifford Ward, Miss Nellie Sullivan, was very well attended and was pronounced a decided success.

Mrs. J. H. Griffiths, formerly of Georgetown, left last week for Mount Vernon, N. C., to be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Thomas B. Griffiths, who will go to Orkney Springs, Va., to spend the summer.

Miss Elizabeth Bryan Ewing, who has been spending the past year in Red Springs, N. C., spent a few weeks here as the guest of relatives before sailing for Holland to spend the summer.

Mrs. George Walls sailed last week from New York for Havre, France. Mrs. Walls expects to remain in Europe a year, and will spend the summer in Germany, later she will travel through Spain, Italy, and Southern France.

Miss Bowie Wilson, formerly of Washington, paid a short visit to relatives in Georgetown last week, and has returned to her home in Baltimore. Miss Wilson was recently the guest of her uncle, Mr. Goldsborough Serpell, at his home in Norfolk, Va.

Rear Admiral John Van B. Bleeker, U. S. N., retired, and Mrs. Bleeker have opened their cottage at Jamestown, R. I., to spend the summer. Later they will be joined by Admiral Bleeker's mother and sister, Mrs. Bleeker and Miss May Bleeker, of New York.

Mrs. Cheevers Moran Barry, of Norfolk, is the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Lieut. Horace Spurgeon, U. S. A., and Mrs. Spurgeon, who have been spending several weeks in Georgetown with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Nelson Falls, at Hammond Court.

Mrs. Buckley and Miss Anne Buckley closed their home in R street and left last Thursday for Chicago, for a short visit before going to Omaha, Neb., to spend several weeks with Mrs. Buckley's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Fitzgaurdy.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dunlop, who have been spending a short week with their son, Mr. James F. Dunlop, of Woodburn, have returned to their home in N street. Mr. and Mrs. William Dunlop, Jr., and their little child are spending the summer at Woodburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Leary and their little daughter, Ruth Clarke Leary, who have been spending a few days in Baltimore as the guests of relatives, have returned to Georgetown and will be the guests of Mrs. Leary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Leary, until July 1, when they will return to their home in Asheville, N. C.

The ladies of the Tabernacle Society of Holy Trinity Church will give a strawberry festival on Thursday and Friday evenings, June 24 and 25, at the Trinity School Hall, Thirtieth street and N street. An excellent orchestra has been obtained to play for the evening and among the other attractions will be dancing and palmistry. The fancy table will be in charge of the young ladies of the Trinity Social Club, and among the ladies in charge of the refreshments will be Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Hoffinger, Mrs. Ridgway, Mrs. Edmondson, Mrs. Freeman, and Mrs. William Dunlop, who have been spending a short week with their son, Mr. James F. Dunlop, of Woodburn, have returned to their home in N street. Mr. and Mrs. William Dunlop, Jr., and their little child are spending the summer at Woodburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Leary and their little daughter, Ruth Clarke Leary, who have been spending a few days in Baltimore as the guests of relatives, have returned to Georgetown and will be the guests of Mrs. Leary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Leary, until July 1, when they will return to their home in Asheville, N. C.

The ladies of the Tabernacle Society of Holy Trinity Church will give a strawberry festival on Thursday and Friday evenings, June 24 and 25, at the Trinity School Hall, Thirtieth street and N street. An excellent orchestra has been obtained to play for the evening and among the other attractions will be dancing and palmistry. The fancy table will be in charge of the young ladies of the Trinity Social Club, and among the ladies in charge of the refreshments will be Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Hoffinger, Mrs. Ridgway, Mrs. Edmondson, Mrs. Freeman, and Mrs. William Dunlop, who have been spending a short week with their son, Mr. James F. Dunlop, of Woodburn, have returned to their home in N street. Mr. and Mrs. William Dunlop, Jr., and their little child are spending the summer at Woodburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Leary and their little daughter, Ruth Clarke Leary, who have been spending a few days in Baltimore as the guests of relatives, have returned to Georgetown and will be the guests of Mrs. Leary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Leary, until July 1, when they will return to their home in Asheville, N. C.

The ladies of the Tabernacle Society of Holy Trinity Church will give a strawberry festival on Thursday and Friday evenings, June 24 and 25, at the Trinity School Hall, Thirtieth street and N street. An excellent orchestra has been obtained to play for the evening and among the other attractions will be dancing and palmistry. The fancy table will be in charge of the young ladies of the Trinity Social Club, and among the ladies in charge of the refreshments will be Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Hoffinger, Mrs. Ridgway, Mrs. Edmondson, Mrs. Freeman, and Mrs. William Dunlop, who have been spending a short week with their son, Mr. James F. Dunlop, of Woodburn, have returned to their home in N street. Mr. and Mrs. William Dunlop, Jr., and their little child are spending the summer at Woodburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Leary and their little daughter, Ruth Clarke Leary, who have been spending a few days in Baltimore as the guests of relatives, have returned to Georgetown and will be the guests of Mrs. Leary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Leary, until July 1, when they will return to their home in Asheville, N. C.

The ladies of the Tabernacle Society of Holy Trinity Church will give a strawberry festival on Thursday and Friday evenings, June 24 and 25, at the Trinity School Hall, Thirtieth street and N street. An excellent orchestra has been obtained to play for the evening and among the other attractions will be dancing and palmistry. The fancy table will be in charge of the young ladies of the Trinity Social Club, and among the ladies in charge of the refreshments will be Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Hoffinger, Mrs. Ridgway, Mrs. Edmondson, Mrs. Freeman, and Mrs. William Dunlop, who have been spending a short week with their son, Mr. James F. Dunlop, of Woodburn, have returned to their home in N street. Mr. and Mrs. William Dunlop, Jr., and their little child are spending the summer at Woodburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Leary and their little daughter, Ruth Clarke Leary, who have been spending a few days in Baltimore as the guests of relatives, have returned to Georgetown and will be the guests of Mrs. Leary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Leary, until July 1, when they will return to their home in Asheville, N. C.

The ladies of the Tabernacle Society of Holy Trinity Church will give a strawberry festival on Thursday and Friday evenings, June 24 and 25, at the Trinity School Hall, Thirtieth street and N street. An excellent orchestra has been obtained to play for the evening and among the other attractions will be dancing and palmistry. The fancy table will be in charge of the young ladies of the Trinity Social Club, and among the ladies in charge of the refreshments will be Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Hoffinger, Mrs. Ridgway, Mrs. Edmondson, Mrs. Freeman, and Mrs. William Dunlop, who have been spending a short week with their son, Mr. James F. Dunlop, of Woodburn, have returned to their home in N street. Mr. and Mrs. William Dunlop, Jr., and their little child are spending the summer at Woodburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Leary and their little daughter, Ruth Clarke Leary, who have been spending a few days in Baltimore as the guests of relatives, have returned to Georgetown and will be the guests of Mrs. Leary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Leary, until July 1, when they will return to their home in Asheville, N. C.

The ladies of the Tabernacle Society of Holy Trinity Church will give a strawberry festival on Thursday and Friday evenings, June 24 and 25, at the Trinity School Hall, Thirtieth street and N street. An excellent orchestra has been obtained to play for the evening and among the other attractions will be dancing and palmistry. The fancy table will be in charge of the young ladies of the Trinity Social Club, and among the ladies in charge of the refreshments will be Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Hoffinger, Mrs. Ridgway, Mrs. Edmondson, Mrs. Freeman, and Mrs. William Dunlop, who have been spending a short week with their son, Mr. James F. Dunlop, of Woodburn, have returned to their home in N street. Mr. and Mrs. William Dunlop, Jr., and their little child are spending the summer at Woodburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Leary and their little daughter, Ruth Clarke Leary, who have been spending a few days in Baltimore as the guests of relatives, have returned to Georgetown and will be the guests of Mrs. Leary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Leary, until July 1, when they will return to their home in Asheville, N. C.

The ladies of the Tabernacle Society of Holy Trinity Church will give a strawberry festival on Thursday and Friday evenings, June 24 and 25, at the Trinity School Hall, Thirtieth street and N street. An excellent orchestra has been obtained to play for the evening and among the other attractions will be dancing and palmistry. The fancy table will be in charge of the young ladies of the Trinity Social Club, and among the ladies in charge of the refreshments will be Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Hoffinger, Mrs. Ridgway, Mrs. Edmondson, Mrs. Freeman,

Mrs. Harvey, Mrs. Davis, Miss Ready, and Miss Lee.

The Girls' Club and Sewing Class of the Georgetown Branch of the Christ Anna Society gave a delightful entertainment last Tuesday evening in Trinity School Hall for the benefit of the fresh air fund.

The feature of the evening was a cantata, entitled, "A Meeting of Nations," which was unusually attractive and well rendered.

Besides the cantata the programme also included recitations, fancy dancing, and several vocal and instrumental solos.

Among those who took prominent parts in the cantata were Miss Louise Morris as Columbia, Miss May Holden and Miss Katherine Monroe as England, Miss May Smith and Miss Dorothy Barrington as Scotland, Miss Anna Cain and Miss Mary Correll as Ireland, Miss Georgia Riccardi and Miss Mary Callahan as France, Miss Mary Mooney and Miss Theresa Newshier as Germany, Miss Catherine Mattane and Miss Evelyn Grude Conlon as Italy, Miss Irene Mattane and Miss Margaret Cronin as Spain, Miss Abbie Abner and Miss Pauline Callahan as Holland, Miss Catherine Gross and Miss Eulalia Thorne as Switzerland, Miss Catherine Cronin and Miss Evelyn Thompson as Sweden, Miss Rose Royce and Miss Margaret Spellman as Norway, Miss Marie Hayes and Miss Eva Thorne as Russia, Miss Margaret Callahan as China, and Miss Catherine Frank as Japan.

The affair, which was under the management of Mrs. Clifford Ward, Miss Nellie Sullivan, was very well attended and was pronounced a decided success.

Mrs. J. H. Griffiths, formerly of Georgetown, left last week for Mount Vernon, N. C., to be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Thomas B. Griffiths, who will go to Orkney Springs, Va., to spend the summer.

Miss Elizabeth Bryan Ewing, who has been spending the past year in Red Springs, N. C., spent a few weeks here as the guest of relatives before sailing for Holland to spend the summer.

Mrs. George Walls sailed last week from New York for Havre, France. Mrs. Walls expects to remain in Europe a year, and will spend the summer in Germany, later she will travel through Spain, Italy, and Southern France.

Miss Bowie Wilson, formerly of Washington, paid a short visit to relatives in Georgetown last week, and has returned to her home in Baltimore. Miss Wilson was recently the guest of her uncle, Mr. Goldsborough Serpell, at his home in Norfolk, Va.

Rear Admiral John Van B. Bleeker, U. S. N., retired, and Mrs. Bleeker have opened their cottage at Jamestown, R. I., to spend the summer. Later they will be joined by Admiral Bleeker's mother and sister, Mrs. Bleeker and Miss May Bleeker, of New York.

Mrs. Cheevers Moran Barry, of Norfolk, is the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Lieut. Horace Spurgeon, U. S. A., and Mrs. Spurgeon, who have been spending several weeks in Georgetown with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Nelson Falls, at Hammond Court.

Mrs. Buckley and Miss Anne Buckley closed their home in R street and left last Thursday for Chicago, for a short visit before going to Omaha, Neb., to spend several weeks with Mrs. Buckley's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Fitzgaurdy.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dunlop, who have been spending a short week with their son, Mr. James F. Dunlop, of Woodburn, have returned to their home in N street. Mr. and Mrs. William Dunlop, Jr., and their little child are spending the summer at Woodburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Leary and their little daughter, Ruth Clarke Leary, who have been spending a few days in Baltimore as the guests of relatives, have returned to Georgetown and will be the guests of Mrs. Leary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Leary, until July 1, when they will return to their home in Asheville, N. C.

The ladies of the Tabernacle Society of Holy Trinity Church will give a strawberry festival on Thursday and Friday evenings, June 24 and 25, at the Trinity School Hall, Thirtieth street and N street. An excellent orchestra has been obtained to play for the evening and among the other attractions will be dancing and palmistry. The fancy table will be in charge of the young ladies of the Trinity Social Club, and among the ladies in charge of the refreshments will be Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Hoffinger, Mrs. Ridgway, Mrs. Edmondson, Mrs. Freeman, and Mrs. William Dunlop, who have been spending a short week with their son, Mr. James F. Dunlop, of Woodburn, have returned to their home in N street. Mr. and Mrs. William Dunlop, Jr., and their little child are spending the summer at Woodburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Leary and their little daughter, Ruth Clarke Leary, who have been spending a few days in Baltimore as the guests of relatives, have returned to Georgetown and will be the guests of Mrs. Leary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Leary, until July 1, when they will return to their home in Asheville, N. C.

The ladies of the Tabernacle Society of Holy Trinity Church will give a strawberry festival on Thursday and Friday evenings, June 24 and 25, at the Trinity School Hall, Thirtieth street and N street. An excellent orchestra has been obtained to play for the evening and among the other attractions will be dancing and palmistry. The fancy table will be in charge of the young ladies of the Trinity Social Club, and among the ladies in charge of the refreshments will be Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Hoffinger, Mrs. Ridgway, Mrs. Edmondson, Mrs. Freeman, and Mrs. William Dunlop, who have been spending a short week with their son, Mr. James F. Dunlop, of Woodburn, have returned to their home in N street. Mr. and Mrs. William Dunlop, Jr., and their little child are spending the summer at Woodburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Leary and their little daughter, Ruth Clarke Leary, who have been spending a few days in Baltimore as the guests of relatives, have returned to Georgetown and will be the guests of Mrs. Leary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Leary, until July 1, when they will return to their home in Asheville, N. C.

The ladies of the Tabernacle Society of Holy Trinity Church will give a strawberry festival on Thursday and Friday evenings, June 24 and 25, at the Trinity School Hall, Thirtieth street and N street. An excellent orchestra has been obtained to play for the evening and among the other attractions will be dancing and palmistry. The fancy table will be in charge of the young ladies of the Trinity Social Club, and among the ladies in charge of the refreshments will be Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Hoffinger, Mrs. Ridgway, Mrs. Edmondson, Mrs. Freeman, and Mrs. William Dunlop, who have been spending a short week with their son, Mr. James F. Dunlop, of Woodburn, have returned to their home in N street. Mr. and Mrs. William Dunlop, Jr., and their little child are spending the summer at Woodburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Leary and their little daughter, Ruth Clarke Leary, who have been spending a few days in Baltimore as the guests of relatives, have returned to Georgetown and will be the guests of Mrs. Leary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Leary, until July 1, when they will return to their home in Asheville, N. C.

The ladies of the Tabernacle Society of Holy Trinity Church will give a strawberry festival on Thursday and Friday evenings, June 24 and 25, at the Trinity School Hall, Thirtieth street and N street. An excellent orchestra has been obtained to play for the evening and among the other attractions will be dancing and palmistry. The fancy table will be in charge of the young ladies of the Trinity Social Club, and among the ladies in charge of the refreshments will be Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Hoffinger, Mrs. Ridgway, Mrs. Edmondson, Mrs. Freeman, and Mrs. William Dunlop, who have been spending a short week with their son, Mr. James F. Dunlop, of Woodburn, have returned to their home in N street. Mr. and Mrs. William Dunlop, Jr., and their little child are spending the summer at Woodburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Leary and their little daughter, Ruth Clarke Leary, who have been spending a few days in Baltimore as the guests of relatives, have returned to Georgetown and will be the guests of Mrs. Leary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Leary, until July 1, when they will return to their home in Asheville, N. C.

The ladies of the Tabernacle Society of Holy Trinity Church will give a strawberry festival on Thursday and Friday evenings, June 24 and 25, at the Trinity School Hall, Thirtieth street and N street. An excellent orchestra has been obtained to play for the evening and among the other attractions will be dancing and palmistry. The fancy table will be in charge of the young ladies of the Trinity Social Club, and among the ladies in charge of the refreshments will be Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Hoffinger, Mrs. Ridgway, Mrs. Edmondson, Mrs. Freeman, and Mrs. William Dunlop, who have been spending a short week with their son, Mr. James F. Dunlop, of Woodburn, have returned to their home in N street. Mr. and Mrs. William Dunlop, Jr., and their little child are spending the summer at Woodburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Leary and their little daughter, Ruth Clarke Leary, who have been spending a few days in Baltimore as the guests of relatives, have returned to Georgetown and will be the guests of Mrs. Leary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Leary, until July 1, when they will return to their home in Asheville, N. C.

The ladies of the Tabernacle Society of Holy Trinity Church will give a strawberry festival on Thursday and Friday evenings, June 24 and 25, at the Trinity School Hall, Thirtieth street and N street. An excellent orchestra has been obtained to play for the evening and among the other attractions will be dancing and palmistry. The fancy table will be in charge of the young ladies of the Trinity Social Club, and among the ladies in charge of the refreshments will be Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Hoffinger, Mrs. Ridgway, Mrs. Edmondson, Mrs. Freeman, and Mrs. William Dunlop, who have been spending a short week with their son, Mr. James F. Dunlop, of Woodburn, have returned to their home in N street. Mr. and Mrs. William Dunlop, Jr., and their little child are spending the summer at Woodburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Leary and their little daughter, Ruth Clarke Leary, who have been spending a few days in Baltimore as the guests of relatives, have returned to Georgetown and will be the guests of Mrs. Leary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Leary, until July 1, when they will return to their home in Asheville, N. C.

The ladies of the Tabernacle Society of Holy Trinity Church will give a strawberry festival on Thursday and Friday evenings, June 24 and 25, at the Trinity School Hall, Thirtieth street and N street. An excellent orchestra has been obtained to play for the evening and among the other attractions will be dancing and palmistry. The fancy table will be in charge of the young ladies of the Trinity Social Club, and among the ladies in charge of the refreshments will be Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Hoffinger, Mrs. Ridgway, Mrs. Edmondson, Mrs. Freeman, Herbert Smith, Mrs. J. D. Gatewood, Mrs. Kate W. Barrett, Mrs. E. L. McClelland, Mrs. James S. Douglas, Mrs. William B. Dingerfield, Mrs. Louis Scott, and Mrs. Charles B. Swan. The managing committee was Mr. J. S. Hewitt, Mr. J. E. Edmonds, Mr. T. B. Fitzsimmons, Mr. David W. Grant, Mr. P. R. Harris, Mr. John Lloyd, Mr. T. T. Pennington, Mr. L. L. Phillips, Mr. T. R. Pratt, Mr. Robert Turk, Mr. G. S. Weaver, Mr. W. H. Williamson, and Mr. J. M. Wood.

The couples dancing were Miss Dorothy Gatewood of Washington, with Mr. Stephen Hewitt; Miss Josephine Mason of Washington, with Mr. Robert Taylor; Miss Jean Brent with Mr. George Anderson; Miss Esther Burke with Mr. George Brown; Miss Christina Kemper with Mr. Frank Kemper; Miss Rose Anderson with Mr. Julian Burke; Miss Emma Carter with Mr. Gardner Carter; Miss Beall Dingerfield with Mr. Charles Marshall; Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Payne Jones, of Atlanta; Miss Beaula Grimes of Philadelphia, with Mr. Robert Turk; Miss Julia Downer, of Norfolk, with Mr. Douglas Brooke; Miss Etta Albert, of Baltimore, with Mr. Randolph Blackford; Miss L. W. Jones, of New York, with Mr. Beverly, Miss Rebecca Lloyd, of New York, with Mr. Alvin Williams; Miss Harris, of Harrisonburg, with Mr. Churchill Gibson; Miss Alice Crawford with Mr. Arthur Charrington; Miss Beatrix Crawford with Mr. Bruce McClelland; Miss Emily Johnson with Mr. Peris Taylor; Miss Cora Jones with Mr. Frederick Taylor; Miss Edith Kyle, of Columbus, Ga., with Mr. George Kyle; Miss Nannie Shackelford, of Orange, with Mr. George Young; Miss Evelyn Sprigley, of Georgetown, with Mr. Lee Williams; Miss Etta Ambler, of Baltimore, with Mr. Cuthbert Tuntall; Miss Lee of